

For Immediate Release

For more information, contact:

Jessica Rurey
Practice Manager, Smith Robinson
803.254.5445
jessica.rurey@smithrobinsonlaw.com

G. Murrell Smith, Jr. (right), Jonathan M. Robinson (left), and partners announce the formation of their new civil litigation and business defense law firm

Smith Robinson Holler DuBose and Morgan, LLC, has three offices across the Midlands

COLUMBIA, S.C., January 26, 2020 - - G. Murrell Smith, Jr., and Jonathan M. Robinson announce the formation of their new law firm, Smith Robinson Holler DuBose and Morgan, LLC, which opened its office in 2019. The Firm, which operates three offices across the Midlands in Columbia, Sumter, and Camden, operates under the trade name Smith Robinson. Smith Robinson is actively interviewing candidates for litigation associate attorneys and paralegals with litigation experience.

Commenting on the formation of their new Firm, Mr. Robinson said, “In the few months that our Firm has been open, we have experienced unprecedented growth and success. Our Firm will continue the long-standing commitment to excellence of its predecessor firms as it expands its legal services throughout South Carolina, North Carolina, and Georgia. Our commitment to providing the highest quality legal services to our clients has, and continues to be, our number one priority.”

An accomplished litigation attorney and a member of the South Carolina House of Representatives, Mr. Smith has 27 years of experience. His law practice includes civil litigation, medical malpractice defense, governmental law, legal malpractice defense, insurance defense, and more. He earned his Juris Doctor from the University of South Carolina School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts degree from Wofford College. In 2000, Mr. Smith was elected to the South Carolina House of Representatives, serving District 67. In 2018, Mr. Smith was elected as the Chairman of the South Carolina House Ways and Means Committee.

-more-

*Smith Robinson – New Firm
Add-1*

As Smith Robinson’s managing partner, Mr. Robinson is responsible for leading the Firm, executing its client retention and growth strategies, and providing managerial oversight for internal operations of the offices in Columbia, Sumter, and Camden. Mr. Robinson leads an active law practice that focuses on civil litigation, civil appeals, insurance defense, governmental law, medical malpractice defense, and more. He earned his Juris Doctor from the University of South Carolina School of Law and his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of South Carolina.

“Our fast rate of growth is demanding the need for experienced litigation attorneys and paralegals,” says Mr. Robinson. “We are currently seeking candidates who meet these qualifications and who are excited to grow their career with our Firm.”

Smith Robinson will unveil its new website in the coming days, where candidates can apply for jobs online.

About Smith Robinson

SMITH | ROBINSON formed from the merger of two South Carolina law firms rich in history and public service. Predecessor firm Lee, Erter, Wilson, Holler, and Smith, LLC, traces roots back more than 150 years in Sumter. The other predecessor firm, DuBose Robinson Morgan, PC, evolved from its founding nearly 40 years ago in Camden. With 13 attorneys and offices in Columbia, Sumter, and Camden, SMITH | ROBINSON combines the experience and successes of its predecessor firms and broadens its capabilities to serve the needs of its clients.

###