Daniel C. Plyler joins Smith Robinson as an associate attorney in the Columbia office

COLUMBIA, S.C., February 3, 2020 - - Smith Robinson is pleased to welcome attorney Daniel C. Plyler to the Firm. Daniel joins the Columbia office, focusing his practice in a wide variety of civil litigation including insurance defense, civil rights litigation, medical malpractice defense, and governmental liability defense.

A native of Aiken, South Carolina, Mr. Plyler graduated from the University of South Carolina Honors College in 2002, where he received his Bachelor of Science degree, with Honors, in Marine Science. He earned his Juris Doctor from the University Of South Carolina School Of Law in 2005. Prior to joining Smith Robinson, Mr. Plyler practiced at another South Carolina law firm.

In addition to his active litigation practice, Mr. Plyler has been invited to speak to various groups regarding recent issues in the law as it relates to potential liability, to include the South Carolina Insurance Reserve Fund, the South Carolina Jail Administrators Association, the South Carolina Association of Counties, and the South Carolina Law Enforcement Officers Association. Mr. Plyler also serves on the South Carolina Bar's Practice and Procedures Committee, as well as the Executive Board for Young Life Downtown Columbia.

About Smith Robinson

SMITH | ROBINSON formed from the merger of two South Carolina law firms rich in history and public service. Predecessor firm Lee, Erter, Wilson, Holler, and Smith, LLC, traces roots back more than 150 years in Sumter. The other predecessor firm, DuBose Robinson Morgan, PC, evolved from its founding nearly 40 years ago in Camden. With 13 attorneys and offices in Columbia, Sumter, and Camden, SMITH | ROBINSON combines the experience and successes of its predecessor firms and broadens its capabilities to serve the needs of its clients.
